Bonjour!

Welcome to Montréal!

We are delighted to welcome visitors back to our beautiful city. Despite two years of an unprecedented pandemic, Montréal has not lost any of its vitality and joie de vivre. The return this summer of some of our biggest events, including the Festival international de Jazz de Montréal and the Formula 1 Canadian Grand Prix, are prime examples!

Whether it’s for a short getaway, a business trip or a vacation, our metropolis, which blends European and American flair, has everything to offer.

As the largest French-speaking city in North America, Montréal has a vibrant culture, colourful neighbourhoods, a lively downtown core, diverse local businesses, renowned universities and unique landscapes.

Come and discover our neighbourhood cafés and restaurants, where the art of dining is both celebrated and creative. Enjoy our festivals and welcoming public spaces. Come and meet Montrealers, who have so much to say. Our community is warm, cultured, curious and active.

Dive into all the attractions of Montréal, worthy of our internationally renowned cultural metropolis.

Montréal will surely give you memorable experiences!

Enjoy your stay with us!

Valérie Plante
Mayor of Montréal

We are delighted to welcome you back to Montréal!

Tourisme Montréal is thrilled with the magnitude of the tourism, cultural and gastronomic programming that marks this long-awaited major relaunch. You will discover a city that is more alive and vibrant than ever.

A more harmonious, responsible and welcoming destination that seamlessly blends the festive rhythm of local life with the effervescence of the tourism revival. A pioneer in sustainable tourism, Montréal was the first Canadian city to join the Global Destination Sustainability Index (GDS Index). Since then, the attention dedicated to the values that feed this great tourism trend has never ceased to grow.

The pandemic has not deprived Montréal of its appeal. Quite the opposite! Festivals, concerts, public art, galleries, restaurants, sports and the outdoors: you’ll easily see why Montréal is one of North America’s top destinations, whether you’re alone, a couple, a family or just passing through for business.

Tourisme Montréal promises you a memorable experience. Enjoy your visit!

In 2021, the tourism industry lost one of its most dedicated and knowledgeable ambassadors, Céline Olivier.

During her 30-year career with Tourisme Montréal, Céline managed a vast range of complex and challenging projects with skill, intelligence, meticulousness and vision. But her favourite project, and one that represents an important part of her legacy, is the tourist guide that you are reading now. It reflects her in-depth knowledge of Montréal and, as an ardent traveller herself, her desire to make her city welcoming and easy to explore for visitors.

To pay tribute to her, we invite you to follow in her footsteps, and live your passion for Montréal to the fullest.

Montréal is an exciting urban centre with countless things to see and do. In this vibrant and welcoming city, change is always in the air and there’s a surprise waiting around every corner.

Tiohtià:ke, the Montréal of the First Nations

Its name comes from its key position in the St. Lawrence River. The island of Montréal was once a strategic trading hub for First Nations peoples, particularly the Atikamekw to the north, the Anishinaabe (Algonquins) to the west, the Kanien’kehà:ka (Mohawks) from the Haudenosaunee Confederacy (Iroquois) to the south. With the present-day communities of Kahnawá:ke on the South Shore and the Kanehsatà:ke territory near Oka, the Kanien’kehà:ka are the First Nations people most closely linked to the island of Montréal, which they called Tiohtià:ke.

The first French colonists were soon followed by the English, Scottish and Irish, then by myriad peoples from around the globe who came to settle on the lush land at the foot of Mount Royal.

Proud of its roots, with its eyes on the future

Today with more than 4 million inhabitants and no less than 120 different nationalities, Montréal boasts a rich and vibrant cultural fabric. The second-largest francophone city in the world after Paris, Montréal has rightly earned its title as a cosmopolitan metropolis. A world leader in many sectors — from aerospace, to information technologies, biotechnologies to video games — the city has also been garnering attention for its innovation in medicine, multimedia, arts and major cultural events. Thanks to its avant-garde outlook, it was named a UNESCO City of Design in 2006.
Nature, culture and good food

Season after season, Montréal satisfies millions of visitors’ cravings for culture, nature and excitement. Not only is Montréal recognized for its world-class culinary scene, but its wildly creative artisans and artists continue to bring crowds to its concert halls, designer ateliers, art galleries and pretty boutiques.

A warm and friendly city

Life is good in Montréal, every day of the week. Soak it up with a leisurely stroll along its lively streets and in its vast parks or explore the underground pedestrian network. To get a feel for the city, stop off in its colourful neighbourhoods, where markets, businesses and restaurants are buzzing with locals. Friendly and quite often multilingual Montrealers easily strike up conversations. And it’s this innate sense of warmth and hospitality that has made the city renowned as an exhilarating festival destination. Charming, multifaceted and relaxed — is it any wonder so many people fall in love with Montréal?

Skyscrapers must not be taller than Mount Royal on the island of Montréal.
Moments in history

Pre-European period

The oldest trace of Indigenous occupation in the area of Old Montréal dates back at least 4,000 years.

Between 1000 and 1535
Several First Nations inhabit the territory.

1535
While exploring the St. Lawrence River, Jacques Cartier discovers an island where cornfields border a village called Hochelaga. Members of the First Nations lead Cartier to the summit of a mountain that he names “Mont Royal”, the origin of name “Montréal.”

1611
On the island, Champlain clears a tract of land that he names “Place Royale,” site of the present-day Pointe-à-Callière Archaeology and History Complex. It is here that Montréal is founded in 1642.

1642
Paul de Chomedey, Sieur de Maisonneuve, and Jeanne Mance found Ville-Marie. However, the settlement gradually becomes known as Montréal and nearly 25 years after its founding, the colony begins to prosper as a military and trading centre.

1701
At Pointe-à-Callière, more than 30 Indigenous nations sign a peace treaty — The Great Peace of Montréal — with the governor of New France, putting an end to the conflicts between the French and the Indigenous Peoples.

1760
War rages on the continent and Montréal falls into the hands of the British. New France, with 60,000 colonists, is officially ceded to Great Britain.

1840 to 1930
Canada’s anglophone upper class, representing 70% of the country’s wealth at the time, moves into downtown’s Golden Square Mile, establishing cultural institutions, elegant stores, mansions and monuments that stretch from McGill University to west of the Montréal Museum of Fine Arts.
1867
Canada becomes a nation with the Dominion of Canada, uniting the British North American colonies and the Province of Canada (Ontario and Québec) through the Confederation Declaration in Charlottetown on July 1, 1867, what is now celebrated as Canada Day.

1930s
During the Great Depression, manufacturing output is halved and over a quarter of workers lose their jobs. Re-elected in 1930, Mayor Camillien Houde offers financial assistance to the unemployed and launches major public works, including the Montréal Botanical Garden, chalets in Mount Royal Park and Parc La Fontaine, viaducts and other infrastructure projects.

1945
The French-speaking community of Montréal starts to make its mark in the arts, sciences and business in a movement that will culminate in the Quiet Revolution, a transformation of Québec society throughout the 1960s. Montréal opens to the world.

1967
From April 27 to October 29, the world came to Montréal for Expo 67, the Universal and International Exhibition, which was the highlight of Canada’s centennial celebrations in 1967. Expo 67 was considered the most successful World’s Fair of the 20th Century, with over 50 million attendees and 62 countries participating.

1976
Montréal hosts the XXI Olympiad from July 17 to August 1, with over 6,000 athletes from 92 nations. Montréal was the first, and remains the only, Canadian city to have ever hosted the Summer Olympics.

1980s
Montréal’s festival scene sees explosive growth with the founding of the Festival International de Jazz de Montréal, Just For Laughs and Les FrancoFolies.

1992
Montréal celebrates the 350th anniversary of its founding with festivities that run from May until October, leaving legacies such as the Pointe-à-Callière Archaeology and History Complex and the Montréal Biodôme.

2006
Montréal is officially designated a UNESCO City of Design, joining the UNESCO Creative Cities Network.

2017 and beyond
In 2017, Montréal celebrates its 375th anniversary, leaving legacies like a coat of arms and flag for the city and the illuminated Jacques Cartier Bridge. Since then, the city continues to renew itself with projects like the redesigned Parc Jean-Drapeau, new public spaces and the makeover of Sainte-Catherine Street.

After a record number of visitors in 2019, Montréal focuses on local tourism given the context of the worldwide pandemic in 2020 and 2021.
Montrealers of the Main – and beyond

Here’s a trip through history that gives a peek at some of Montréal’s main communities.

When Montrealers talk about the Main, they’re talking about Saint-Laurent Boulevard, the city’s main north-south thoroughfare (and shopping mecca) that divides the city into east and west. The Main is a street rich in history, and through the years, it’s been home to many of the cultures that give Montréal its unique personality.

The Greeks
Montréal first welcomed immigrants from Greece around the end of the 19th century. Many opened businesses and restaurants in various areas of the city, including in Mile End, off the Main.

The Jews
Jews from Eastern Europe began to arrive in Montréal at the turn of the 20th century, while many more also arrived from Sephardic countries by the 1950s. Jewish culture is at the heart of the Main.

The Irish
Montréal’s St. Patrick’s Day parade is the oldest in Canada and — technically — the oldest continuously held in North America (every March since 1824). Immigration began in 1815, and by 1900, they formed the second largest cultural group in the city.

The Scottish
Street names in the city’s Golden Square Mile are a veritable who’s-who of Scottish families responsible for the city’s boom years, from 1840 to 1930.

The English
Montréal surrendered to British forces in 1760 during the Seven Years’ War. Residents of British origin were the majority in the city around 1831, due to large-scale immigration.

The First Nations
Because of its position in the St. Lawrence River — where the Main begins, and after which it’s named — Montréal was a place where First Nations had been coming together for millennia.
Montreal was founded in 1642 by the French. In the 19th century, French Canadians in search of work poured into the city from rural areas. By 1865 Francophones made up most of the city’s population.

The end of the 1950s marked the first boom in Latino immigration to Montréal, featuring mainly students and skilled workers who set down roots in a variety of neighbourhoods, including Villeray, adjacent to the Main.

Portuguese immigration began in the 1950s and settled around the lower Plateau section of the Main, where you can still find many famous restaurants today.

The small Haitian community of 500 in 1967 grew so that by 1978, Haiti was the country with the largest immigrant population in Montréal: 14.7% of all immigrants that year. The influx continues, especially after the country’s devastating earthquake of 2010.

On the northern stretch of the Main, Little Italy is still the heart of Italian culture. The first Italian immigrants came in the 19th century, and in 1971, Italian was Montréal’s third most-spoken language.

The end of the 1950s marked the first boom in Latino immigration to Montréal, featuring mainly students and skilled workers who set down roots in a variety of neighbourhoods, including Villeray, adjacent to the Main.

Middle Eastern immigration to Montréal started at the end of the 19th century, leading to the formation of Little Syria, then located on the Main. In the last three decades, many more Arab immigrants have put down roots in Montréal.

Immigrants from Eastern Europe began joining in the Montréal workforce in the 19th century, but the influx really picked up after the Second World War. They established themselves in various areas, including the lower Main.

Montréal was founded in 1642 by the French. In the 19th century, French Canadians in search of work poured into the city from rural areas. By 1865 Francophones made up most of the city’s population.

Go up the Main from the Old Port, and you’ll hit Chinatown. In 1825, the Census listed only one single Montrealer of Chinese descent! By the early 20th century there were over a thousand.
Montréal musts for first-time visitors

A first-time visit to any city can be overwhelming — but no more! To simplify your initial Montréal visit, we’ve compiled a list of crowd-pleasing to-dos and attractions that promise to give you a sense of the city. In no particular order, here are a few absolute must-sees for any first-time visitor to Montréal.

Play by the water in the Old Port
Enjoy the mighty St. Lawrence River from the shores of the Old Port, where you can explore the Grand Quay terminal, the scenic boardwalk and activity-packed piers. Enjoy exhibitions and IMAX® films at the Montréal Science Centre, become a pirate for the day at Voiles en Voiles, ride the zip line, take a river cruise, go ice skating in winter and relax on the beach in summer. Day or night, year-round, view the entire city from the observation wheel, La Grande Roue de Montréal.

Head back in time in Old Montréal
See how the city first began along the cobblestone streets of Old Montréal, with architecture dating back as far as 1685. Watch street performers from a terrasse at historic Place Jacques-Cartier before you stop by Notre-Dame Basilica for the stained-glass art and, by night, the incredible multimedia creation AURA. After dark, you can also step into chapters of Montréal’s history with Cité Mémoire projections on building facades all around the neighbourhood.

Roam from the river to the mountain
Starting at the Pointe-à-Callière Archaeology and History Complex in Old Montréal, enjoy a river-to-mountain walk featuring spacious sidewalks, greenery, rest stops and public art. Stroll northward to the foot of Mount Royal, “the mountain” in local parlance. Its park was designed by Frederick Law Olmsted of Central Park fame. Give yourself a breezy two hours to reach the lookout at the top, alone or with a guided tour.

Nearby, visit one of the most popular Catholic pilgrimage sites in the world, Saint Joseph’s Oratory. It’s a Montréal masterpiece and home to a magnificent Rudolf von Beckerath organ, ranked among the 10 most prestigious in the world. Ride the metro to Côte-des-Neiges station and then climb the famous staircase to the oratory.
Shop along Sainte-Catherine Street
As one of the longest commercial strips in Canada, Sainte-Catherine Street is the perfect place for retail therapy. You’ll find street-level shops, a handful of great malls, styles ranging from streetwear to formal wear and international fashion mainstays — but don’t miss the local, only-here retailers and pop-up shops.

Bite into iconic Montréal cuisine
To truly taste Montréal, sink your teeth into a juicy smoked meat sandwich, taste our unique wood-fired bagels, sample our notorious poutine and quench your thirst with a locally brewed beer. To explore the full range of regional products, head to one of the city’s public markets. Jean-Talon Market, located in the heart of Little Italy, is the largest and most culturally diverse, while the art deco-style Atwater Market is located beside the picturesque Lachine Canal.

Discover Montréal’s “underground”
Montréal contains a vast network of pedestrian walkways — 33 km (20 miles) of connecting passageways, to be exact — below street level. Particularly popular in the winter, this network — officially called the RÉSO ("network" en français), but known as the “Underground City” — connects offices, trains, restaurants, the city’s convention centre, major hotels and a handful of shopping malls!

Reach a new Plateau
The colourful spiral staircases typical of the Plateau-Mont-Royal neighbourhood make for an iconic image of Montréal. Meet the predominantly French-speaking community of artists, students and professionals, with a healthy dose of other cultures and languages. Stroll along Mont-Royal Avenue, and, if it’s a sunny day, do as the locals do and grab a picnic to enjoy in peaceful Parc La Fontaine.

Get a dose of local culture
Start by picking up a Passeport MTL to explore museums and galleries aplenty. Next, a public art tour is sure to wow, before you browse through show listings and buy tickets for dance, theatre, opera and circus performances, film screenings and concerts. For what’s sure to be a memorable night out, settle into one of Montréal’s many live music venues.

Go east for a feast of attractions
Montréal’s east side neighbourhood of Hochelaga-Maisonneuve is home to the Olympic Stadium, where visitors can ride to the top of the inclined tower (the tallest in the world) for a bird’s eye view of the cityscape. Also in the neighbourhood are the internationally-lauded Space for Life Museums, which include the Montréal Botanical Garden and the Insectarium, the Rio Tinto Alcan Planetarium and the Biodôme.
Gastronomy

Musts

The Montréal bagel is boiled in water, sweetened with honey and cooked in a wood-fired oven, giving it a crisp, golden top. The bagel was introduced to North America by Jewish immigrants from Poland and other Eastern European countries.

Montréal’s smoked meat was invented by Aaron Sanft, who was born in Romania. The smoked meat sandwich is piled high with thin slices of succulent meat smoked with a blend of secret spices.

Poutine is a decadent mix of fries, gravy and cheese curds (that squeak when you eat them!).

The icons

Montréal cuisine is a delicious combination of influences that started with Indigenous, British and French origins, but now knows no rules nor boundaries. Chefs across the city transform fresh, locally grown products into creative culinary concepts. An ever-changing whirlwind of flavours has elevated classic Québécois dishes from everyday cooking to surprisingly inventive delights. You won’t be disappointed by the aptly named nouvelle cuisine québécoise.

- The Jean-Talon Market is open 361 days a year and offers products coming from a 60-kilometre radius of the city.
- The Wilensky’s Light Lunch restaurant has not changed much since 1932. Travel back in time and order a “special” — a beef bologna and salami sandwich.
- The Gibeau Orange Julep is a fast food restaurant built in the shape of a giant orange, a nod to the delicious juice it serves.
- The pretty little store Le Petit Dep is the ultimate candy shop of grown-ups and kids alike, with special treats, gourmet products, pastries and all the special touches to sweeten your stay.
- Open since 1968, La Banquise is a go-to spot for poutine in Montréal with over 30 varieties available.
- Hot dogs have been a must since 1912 at Montréal Pool Room, one of the city’s institutions.
- La Binerie Mont-Royal, now located on Saint-Denis Street, serves iconic French-Canadian cuisine.
Montréal boasts over 400 BYOW restaurants.

Close to 30 microbreweries have set up shop on the island of Montréal.

30 gourmet festivals and events take place in Montréal each year, including MONTRÉAL EN LUMIÈRE, the Festival Mondial de la bière, the YUL EAT Festival and MTLàTABLE.

The city has around 67 restaurants per square kilometre in its tourist areas.

Need a pack of gum? Head to the dep! That’s what Montrealers call corner stores, short for the French word dépanneur. Not your average 7-Eleven, most are mom-and-pop shops that sell everything from beer to tea biscuits.

Did you know?

The Montréal bagel travelled in space with astronaut Gregory Chamitoff, all the way to the International Space Station.

Nightlife

Never quiet in the day, Montréal becomes supercharged after dark, igniting a fun-loving, welcoming edginess rarely found anywhere else.

Montréal’s nightlife isn’t limited to one single scene — it features red-hot nightclubs, sure, and some of the world's most renowned electronic music festivals and events, but there are also twinkly jazz bars, crowded film premieres, all-night art events and internationally renowned fireworks shows. Wander into one of the many live music bars to discover the next Arcade Fire or join an organized tour group on a brewery hop. Or how about a late-night dose of history as you watch incredible light projections come to life on the building surfaces of Old Montréal? There truly is something for everyone, of every age and every interest. Because when the sun sets, it’s only the beginning.

Casino de Montréal

A scintillating playground and destination for a multitude of attractions, only minutes from downtown, the Casino de Montréal delivers entertainment and excitement year-round. At the Cabaret, comedy shows, dance performances, tribute nights and local and international artists are all part of the program.

Montréal’s pop-up villages

Colourful riverside bowers, playful green spaces at the heart of downtown, stages for all kinds of shows, playgrounds for activities for the whole family, relaxing areas for happy hour with friends: these pop-up installations bring fun and vitality to city’s neighbourhoods. Pick your spot!

Spring in Montréal is a pretty sensational time: with flowers blooming, people pedaling — especially on public-share BIXI bikes — and everyone flocking to sun-kissed outdoor terrasses, the city’s vibrant scene plays out in colour, fun and spontaneity. This season, be sure to check out street-side circus acts, fringe performances, outdoor murals, digital arts, and while you’re at it, why not try urban sugar shacking?

Summer

Pack your sense of discovery and your sunnies, it’s summertime in Montréal! With its feast of festivals that draw international star power in music, comedy, sports and circus, you’ll want to take it ALL in. For a deeper dive into the local culture, check out the colourful street art, neighbourhood activities and tasty fare of food trucks. What are the hallmarks of a cool, vibey Montréal summer? When you can dance the day or night away, lounge on outdoor terrasses, catch some rays on sunny beaches and hang out at the city’s many cool seasonal markets and biergartens.

Fall

Fall in Montréal is all about food (scrumptious), foliage (spectacular), fashion (so stylish) and a cultural calendar that’s overflowing with choice. Autumn musts include getting front-row seats to hot new premieres in dance, film or symphony, exploring the city’s mouth-watering culinary scene and letting your hair down at epic dance parties. For inspiration of a quieter nature, why not steal away to a cozy café, snap pictures of nature’s breathtaking palette or indulge in some luxurious spa treatments?

Winter

Let it snow! And... let it glow! Montréal’s winter charm lies in its luminous layers: streets strung with colourful holiday lights, dazzling outdoor installations and the great, glittering snowscape. Follow the lead of Montrealers and turn frosty into fun by indulging in cheery holiday markets, outdoor parties, world-class dining and conversation-sparking cultural all-nighters. Are you an incurable romantic? Bring your sweetheart for a starlit ice skate, reserve a table at a gourmet restaurant or book some blissful spa pampering.

According to rankings by the travel site Gogobot, Montréal is the number one foodie city in North America, compared to over 60,000 cities based on reviews by travellers.
Montréal murals and urban art

Street art has become an essential visual language in Montréal with a robust scene that draws local and international artists. Their work has not only transformed the visual landscape of the city but has also engaged communities and residents in the creation of new works.

Two annual summer graffiti festivals put the spotlight on this scene. Founded in 1996, the Under Pressure festival focuses on community development, artist empowerment and positive youth development. The festival features live painting sessions by Montréal artists along with other events that draw crowds to Quartier Latin every year.

On nearby Saint-Laurent Boulevard, the MURAL festival has a mission to democratize urban art. The event closes traffic along central Saint-Laurent Boulevard for three days and invites a select group of local and international artists to paint live. Over 80 large-scale murals and installations have been created since the festival launched in 2012, effectively turning a stroll around the Plateau neighbourhood into an outdoor gallery experience.

In addition to the art created during these festivals, Montréal sponsors public art initiatives and neighbourhood mural commissions to enhance the city. Finally, the not-for-profit organization MU has a mission to beautify the city by creating murals that are anchored in local communities. They have produced several notable pieces in their Tribute to Montréal’s Great Artists series, including a beloved homage to Leonard Cohen that can be admired from the Kondiaronk Belvedere on Mount Royal.

MU recently collaborated with Tourisme Montréal for the creation of a mural to mark the 100th anniversary of the latter. Expressive and bursting with colour, Façades : Fenêtres sur ma ville (“windows on my city”) is the work of Chilean-born Montréaler Rafael Sottolichio. Much as Montréal blends cutting-edge modernity with old-world charm, Façades pays fitting tribute to both our city’s rich history and its bright future. You can admire it peacefully from Square Dorchester.

There are also lots of postal outlets located within other businesses, like pharmacies.

CANADIAN CURRENCY

Canadian currency is the Canadian dollar, which is divided into 100 cents. There are 5, 10, 20, 50 and 100 dollar bills. Smaller coins are 5, 10, and 25 cent pieces as well as of 1 and 2 dollars. Banking and credit cards are also welcome almost everywhere.

CANNABIS

quebec.ca/cannabis

According to the law, you must be at least 21 years old to purchase or consume cannabis (be prepared to show ID if asked). The legislation also includes other measures, such as prohibiting drug use (cannabis or any other drug) in a road vehicle, on an off-road vehicle or on a bicycle.

DRIVING TO MONTRÉAL

It’s easy to get to Montréal by car: it’s just 75 kilometres (46 miles) from the U.S. Border. Access to the Island is via one of the major bridges — Samuel-de-Champlain, Jacques-Cartier or Victoria — or the Louis-Hippolyte-La Fontaine bridge-tunnel to head downtown. Drivers should note that Montréal is undergoing a major renaissance, with many ongoing construction and infrastructure projects; there will be orange cones and possible detours in different neighbourhoods. The best way to get around once in the city? Walk, use public transit or take a taxi.

Metric system

Québec uses the metric system, so speeds are indicated in kilometres (100 km/h = 62 mph) and gas is sold in litres (1 US gallon = 3 3/4 litres).

Right turn

Although turning right on a red light is authorized across Québec (except at intersections where a sign indicates this is not permitted), rights on reds are strictly prohibited on the island of Montréal.

Cell phone

Use of a hand-held cell phone that does not have a hands-free function is prohibited while driving. Cell phones must be fixed to a mount attached to the vehicle.
More than 100 years promoting Montréal!

Did you know that Tourisme Montréal was founded on October 8, 1919, by the Automobile Club of Canada (which would become CAA-Québec) in partnership with city hotels and the Ville de Montréal, making it one of the oldest tourism bureaus in North America?

Did you know?

Montréal has not one but two giant murals of beloved homegrown artist, poet and performer Leonard Cohen.

Visitors are probably most familiar with the 22-storey mural of Cohen with his hand on his heart downtown on Crescent Street, entitled “Tower of Songs,” created by El Mac and Gene Pendon in 2017. But there is another magnificent mural of the Montréal pop icon in the Plateau neighbourhood near the corner of Saint-Dominique and Napolean streets, a few steps east of Saint-Laurent Boulevard. The nine-storey untitled mural by Kevin Ledo was also created in 2017 as a tribute to the artist following his passing in November 2016.

Both of these works embody wisdom and compassion of this internationally-acclaimed, larger-than-life Montréal artist.

Skyscrapers and Victorian mansions, lovely shops and Gothic Revival churches: downtown is all contrasts and constant bustle.

Between the river and “the mountain,” Mount Royal, downtown is the heart of the metropolis, a concentration of the hectic life of the various communities who live there. People go there to work, study, shop, dance, go to the movies, dine, have a drink or simply stroll. When summer comes, blocks are closed to traffic to make a place for festivalgoers.

Founded following a bequest from James McGill, a Montréal fur trader born in Glasgow, McGill University received its charter from King George IV in 1821. The downtown campus comprises more than 80 buildings on 80 acres of land.
Inaugurated in 1962, Place Ville Marie, designed by Chinese-American architect Ieoh Ming Pei, forms a vast multifunctional complex that includes five office towers and an upscale shopping centre. It was the first phase of Montréal’s underground city that now extends 33 km (20.5 miles) in length. At the foot of this landmark building, the Esplanade Place Ville Marie is a modern cultural and experiential destination designed to enhance the urban experience. This gathering space features an imposing glass pavilion offering access to an epicurean food court and to the underground network, and a grand staircase leading to McGill College Avenue. Nearby, along Robert-Bourassa Boulevard is Gerald Gladstone’s impressive fountain and bronze sculpture called Female Landscape.

Founded in 1964, the MAC is the first institution in Canada devoted exclusively to contemporary art. The Museum offers a varied program, including the presentation of its permanent collection and temporary exhibitions of works by artists from Québec, Canada and abroad.

Central Station opened on July 14, 1943. The station’s Departure Hall is decorated with a historic fresco that illustrates the lives of Canadians, their industries, their activities and dreams for the future. The words of the Canadian national anthem are written along the base of the fresco. Businesses in Les Halles de la Gare include various restaurants, bakeries, a liquor store, a florist, etc.

Inspired by St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome, this Catholic cathedral was built at the end of the 19th century in the heart of what was then the city’s Anglo-Protestant sector. Inside, a superb gilded Baroque Revival baldachin overlooks the altar. In the transept, paintings by Georges Delfosse illustrate the historic beginnings of Montréal.

This 51-storey building exemplifies a new architectural philosophy through its artful use of materials. Standing 205 metres (672 feet) high, it features an indoor skating rink set inside an exceptional domed, sky-lit exhibition hall. The indoor skating rink welcomes skaters all year round.

This train station, whose first phase was completed in 1889, is considered one of Canada’s oldest and most striking examples of Romanesque Revival architecture. At one time, it was the hub of Canada’s railway system. Windsor Station was designated a National Historic Site of Canada, a Heritage Railway Station and a Québec Provincial historic landmark.
Bell Centre
Map p. 85
1909 Avenue des Canadiens-de-Montréal
Bonaventure | 514 932-2582 | centrebell.ca

Inaugurated in 1996 and home of the Montréal Canadiens Hockey Club, the Bell Centre has been designed to seat more than 21,000 sports enthusiasts. It is also a venue for rock concerts, classical music performances and family entertainment.

St. George’s Anglican Church
Map p. 85
Corner of Peel and De La Gauchetière West Streets
Bonaventure | 514 866-7113 | st-georges.org

Built in 1870, this church is a jewel of Neo-Gothic architecture. Its interior features superb woodwork as well as a silk damask from Westminster Abbey in honour of the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.

Dorchester Square – Place du Canada
Map p. 85
Corner of Peel Street and René-Lévesque Blvd.
Peel

Oases of greenery in the very heart of Montréal, Dorchester Square and Place du Canada are lined by heritage churches and superb buildings, old and new. On the north side of René-Lévesque Boulevard, Dorchester Square was formerly the site of the Montréal Catholic Cemetery, between 1799 and 1854. Offering an impressive Victorian-style fountain, two arched metal and wood footbridges, a meticulously restored old vespasienne, benches and walkways to relax, the Square is a popular spot at lunchtime in particular, attracting hundreds of people each day.

Sun Life Building
Map p. 85
1155 Metcalfe Street
Peel | edificesunlife.ca

Inaugurated in 1918, this impressive building highlighted by colonnades, long held the distinction of being the largest building in the British Empire. This Beaux-Arts style building was used as a safe for the gold reserves of a number of European countries during World War II.

Underground Pedestrian Network
Map p. 177

The name “the Underground City” refers to the vast network of pedestrian walkways below the city. There are 33 kilometres (20.5 miles) of connecting passageways beneath downtown, with the métro (subway), commuter trains and buses also converging here.

Approximately 500,000 people circulate daily on this network, where some 2,000 shops and restaurants, major hotels, museums, theaters and universities can be found.

The concept began in 1962 with the lower level shopping mall in Place Ville Marie. With the coming of Expo 67, Montréal’s dream of a métro finally became reality. The underground network went through many stages of development.
Sainte-Catherine Street

Stretching for 11 kilometres (9 miles) across the city from east to west, Sainte-Catherine Street is lined with the major department stores, shops and restaurants that have been the pride of Montréal for more than a century.

Cours Mont-Royal

Built in 1922, the 1,100-room Mount Royal Hotel was the largest in the British Empire. This elegant building is now part of a multipurpose complex housing boutiques, restaurants, apartments, offices and a permanent exhibit of Barbie dolls dressed by renowned designers.

Christ Church Cathedral

Nestled between modern buildings, Christ Church Cathedral figures prominently in the downtown core overtop an underground shopping centre. A fine example of Gothic Revival architecture, it was built between 1857 and 1859, and was one of the first of its kind in Canada. The picturesque cloister garden behind the Cathedral is dedicated to Raoul Wallenberg, Hero of Humanity, who saved thousands of Jews from concentration camps during World War II. Every Saturday at 4 p.m. throughout the year, a free concert is presented in the Cathedral.

Phillips Square

A monument to Edward VII adorns the centre of this tiny park named after its donor, Thomas Phillips (in 1840). In fact, the first downtown stores were located around this Square. Today, we still find the famous Birks jewellery store, housed in a magnificent building (1864), and The Bay department store, originally called the Hudson’s Bay Company, founded by the trappers and used as a fur resale outlet.

Quartier des Spectacles

It is Montréal’s cultural heart. There are more than 80 cultural venues offering an exceptionally diverse array of activities: festivals, movies, plays, dance performances, art exhibitions, technological art displays, music concerts, operas, comedy shows. It’s a constantly evolving destination that literally lights up the night thanks to an innovative lighting plan (big red dots on the ground lead the way).

Église du Gesù
1200-1202 de Bleury Street | Place-des-Arts
514 861-4378 | legesu.com

Built in 1865 by the Irish architect Patrick C. Keeley, it is one of the oldest baroque churches in Montréal. Adjacent to the church is the Gésu, Centre de créativité, whose missions through shows and exhibitions brings together spirituality and art.

Monument-National
1182 Saint-Laurent Blvd. | Saint-Laurent
514 871-9883 | monumentnational.com

The Monument-National is the second most important complex offering a wealth of show venues in downtown. It is the stage of various concerts and theatrical performances. Built in 1893, its architecture integrates elements of Baroque Revival and Mannerist style.
Society for Arts and Technology [SAT]

The SAT is a major cultural hub where science meets art and where technology serves innovative creators. Its facade is a unique intelligent lighting installation that combines architecture, light and interactivity. Inside, it’s a must-visit, either to enjoy the greatest local and international DJs, or to discover the sensations of a full visual and audio immersion in the Satosphère, a one-of-a-kind 360° full dome. You can end your day at one of the Foodlab’s tables, for a taste of local ingredients and natural wines, or to simply experience the city’s skyline on the terrace.

MEM – Centre des mémoires montréalaises

MEM – Centre des mémoires montréalaises hands you the key to Montréal’s multiple identities. Live or re-live the rich and eventful history of our metropolis. The Centre is transforming into a new museum and civic space. Opening scheduled for 2022. Tours and podcasts featuring Montréal neighbourhoods that have disappeared are also available.

Centre for Sustainable Development

The Centre for Sustainable Development boasts the LEED® Canada NC Platinum certification, making it the first building in Québec to obtain this level, the highest in the LEED certification system. Its innovative urban design features a green roof, raised floors, geothermal wells, waterless and low-flow plumbing, plus a five-storey-high living wall. The Centre offers a free self-guided tour of the building and guided tours in small groups (in French only), as well as a program of activities covering all spheres of sustainable development. Guided tours for groups of 5 to 20 persons and specialized tours are also offered upon reservations.

Esplanade Tranquille

This “tranquil” public square in the Quartier des Spectacles buzzes with activity all year long! In the summer, kick back in the shade of a tree, take in an outdoor concert or simply watch the kids play; in the winter, lace up your skates and glide onto the refrigerated outdoor skating rink. Complete with an urban terrace, a grassy area, a playground and a chalet, the Esplanade Tranquille is a fun, friendly and accessible spot to meet, play, rest and relax in the heart of downtown.

Quartier latin

Historically, the Quartier latin was the first area in which the Francophone bourgeoisie settled in Montréal at the beginning of the 19th century, and various institutions have followed suit over the years: Théâtre Saint-Denis, Bibliothèque Saint-Sulpice, Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM), Cégep du Vieux-Montréal, Bibliothèque et Archives nationales du Québec (BAnQ), and so on. The neighbourhood’s concentration of institutions, the numerous festivals held there, and an effervescent nightlife make the Quartier latin one of the cultural highlights of the city. With its many cafés, restaurants, and bars, the district is also home to a dynamic student campus.
Saint-Denis Street – from Viger Square to Saint-Louis Square

Saint-Denis Street, the Quartier latin’s major thoroughfare, runs from Old Montréal, near the recently redeveloped and expansive Square Viger, where you can find the Jean-Olivier monument, a park pavilion, pergolas and plenty of green space, past Square Saint-Louis, which provides a unique example of mid-19th-century Victorian-style urban architecture and has been home to many of Québec’s artists, including the poet, Émile Nelligan. The street adopted its commercial vocation at the turn of the 20th century. More than a hundred different businesses contribute to the unique mixture of restaurants, cafés, bistros and boutiques.

Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM)

405 Sainte-Catherine Street East | ✉ Berri-UQAM
514 987-3000 | etudier.uqam.ca

The beating heart of the Quartier latin, UQAM is a francophone university, renowned worldwide, that offers over 300 programs to over 40,000 students. The campus was designed to integrate a number of heritage buildings, such as the well-known bell tower of the Église Saint-Jacques and the building that formerly housed the École Polytechnique. UQAM is also home to La Galerie de l’UQAM (1400 Berri Street, local J-R-120), which presents exhibits by artists from around the world in a program devoted mainly to contemporary art, and to the Centre de design (1440 Sanguinet Street), dedicated to architecture as well as industrial, graphic and fashion design.

Grande Bibliothèque – Bibliothèque et Archives nationales du Québec

475 De Maisonneuve Blvd. East | ✉ Berri-UQAM
514 873-1101 | banq.qc.ca

The Grande Bibliothèque is a cultural meeting place, which houses an auditorium, exhibition hall, coffee shop, and outdoor facilities. Its design was selected following an international architectural competition. The building is covered with over 6,000 plates of frosted and tempered glass and a ceramic coating used for the first time in North America. Inside, two large spaces known as the wooden rooms are distinguished by wood-paneled walls that can direct or block light as required for conserving documents. Walls are made of yellow birch, the emblematic tree of Québec.

Headquarters of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), a specialized agency of the United Nations. Outside the Atrium entrance is a sculpture by the Quebec artist Marcelle Ferron entitled Le Miroir aux alouettes. Located in its main lobby, the ICAQ Museum (closed for an indefinite period due to health measures) is dedicated to the history of air transport.

Square Victoria
Corner of Viger Avenue and Côte du Beaver Hall  |  vieuxmontreal.ca

Created during the 19th century, the Square was named after Queen Victoria (1819-1901). The monument dedicated to the illustrious monarch was the work of British sculptor Marshall Wood and was unveiled in 1872. The entrance to the métro station in the Square bears an authentic Paris métro railing. The Art Nouveau casting was designed by Hector Guimard in 1900 and was offered to the City of Montréal by the City of Paris, on the occasion of the 1967 Universal Exhibition.

World Trade Centre Montréal
747 du Square-Victoria Street  |  Square-Victoria-OACI
514 982-9888  |  centredecommercemondial.com

Inaugurated in 1992, the World Trade Centre comprises historical renovated buildings linked together by a glass-covered promenade covering a part of the old Ruelle des Fortifications. A true indoor village, this chic, multipurpose complex, connected to the Underground Pedestrian Network, features a shopping arcade. A fragment of the Berlin Wall donated to Montréal for its 350th anniversary, a majestic fountain, and the mural work, entitled Circulations, decorate the place.

St. Patrick’s Basilica
460 René-Lévesque Blvd. West  |  Square-Victoria-OACI
514 866-7379  |  stpatricksmtl.ca

Better known as “The Irish Church,” the Basilica was constructed between 1843 and 1847, and is a fine evocation of the Gothic style of the 14th and 15th centuries. It is characterized by its huge pine columns, the oak carving in the nave as well as the carved pulpit and choir loft.

Quartier international

Quartier international de Montréal
Bordered by Robert-Bourassa Blvd. and Saint-Jacques, Viger and Saint-Urbain Streets  |  Square-Victoria-OACI

It is a public area dotted with many works of art from around the world and one cannot help but notice their eclectic nature, a contrasting display of classical and modern. At the centre of this Quartier sits the eye-catching La Joute, a bold study by Jean-Paul Riopelle, in which fire confronts water. The area’s monuments, statues, sculptures and historic remains all combine to create a sense of movement. Numerous high-end hotels are found here too.

St. Patrick’s Basilica

Better known as “The Irish Church,” the Basilica was constructed between 1843 and 1847, and is a fine evocation of the Gothic style of the 14th and 15th centuries. It is characterized by its huge pine columns, the oak carving in the nave as well as the carved pulpit and choir loft.
Montréal’s very first Saint Patrick’s Day Parade was held in 1824.

Today, an estimated 240,000 Montrealers are of Irish descent.
Crescent, de la Montagne and Sherbrooke Streets are the hub of the district’s vibrant business life. High-end, designer fashion and décor boutiques, international shops, art galleries, jewellers and exquisite fine dining never fail to win visitors over.

The Montreal Museum of Fine Arts

Founded in 1860, the MMFA is the oldest art museum in Canada and a leading museum in North America. Its collection showcases Québec and Canadian heritage and international art from a critical and intercultural perspective, and comprises some 45,000 paintings, sculptures, graphic art works, photographs, multimedia installations and decorative art objects dating from antiquity to the present. The MMFA’s exhibitions span every discipline from archaeology to fine arts, to contemporary practices. Laid out over five interconnecting pavilions, the Museum complex includes over 80 exhibition galleries, the Bourgie concert hall, an auditorium and movie theatre, the Boutique and Bookstore, an in-house publishing department, a public sculpture garden and the Michel de la Chenelière International Atelier for Education and Art Therapy.

The Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul

This Presbyterian church, built in 1932, is one of the major institutions of Montréal’s Scottish community. Its interior is entirely made of stone, and a stained glass window overlooking the central altar commemorates soldiers killed in action during World War I.

La Guilde

La Guilde is a non-profit organization founded in 1906 in a joint effort to preserve, encourage and promote contemporary Inuit and First Nations art and fine crafts of Canada. La Guilde includes a permanent collection of Inuit art (one of the most influential in Canada), historical and cultural archives of inestimable ethnological value, and a gallery that brings together works by renowned and emerging artists and presents high-quality contemporary artworks.

Concordia University

Concordia University welcomes 46,000 students annually. The downtown campus has many pavilions including the Motherhouse of the Grey Nuns, the integrated Engineering, Computer Science, and Visual Arts building, and the John Molson School of Business. The McConnell Building houses the library and the Leonard and Bina Ellen Art Gallery (1400 De Maisonneuve Blvd. West) dedicated to the presentation and study of contemporary art.
Crescent Street

Peel | crescentmontreal.com

Sumptuous Victorian architecture housing luxury boutiques, haute couture showrooms and art galleries has been carefully showcased, giving the Street a distinctive touch of elegance. Nightclubs, restaurants, bars, outdoor cafés and pubs add frivolity and excitement. On a 21-storey wall, stands the gigantic mural entitled Tower of Songs, a tribute to the late Montréal singer-songwriter Leonard Cohen.

Laser Game Evolution

Atwater

Fashionable boutiques, superb art galleries, libraries and antique shops line Greene Avenue. At the corner of Wood Street, three black towers of steel and tinted glass, designed by the celebrated modernist architect Mies van der Rohe, soar up around Westmount Square shopping centre.

Former Grand Séminaire de Montréal
Map p. 85
2065 Sherbrooke Street West | Guy-Concordia

On the side of Mount Royal, Domaine des Gentlemen of St. Sulpice is a vast institutional group. The site includes the College of Montréal (1870), its buildings and its chapel, the former Grand Seminary of Montréal (1857), its buildings and its chapel (1864) whose interior was completely redesigned at the beginning of the 20th century. The area also contains the last remnants of the old fort of the Mission of the Mountain (1675) and a historical natural environment that brings us back to the first time of European occupation.

Montréal is a leader in “green desking,” a movement that combines coworking and outdoor working spaces.

At the forefront of the green desking revolution is Îlot 84, an organization that has been offering Montrealers dynamic and green working spaces at the heart of the city since 2017. With over 30 free working stations, collaborative outdoor spaces, but also festive gatherings and networking events (Aire Commune), the project aims to encourage creativity, synergy and collaboration, and to define new and innovative ways of working.

Montréal: Student city

Each year, about 320,000 students (including 50,000 international students from 150 countries) become part of the fabric of Montréal, adding their energy and talent to the vibrant mix of the metropolis. The four main universities — two English and two French — are located right downtown, close to metro stations, making it easy for students to get around.

Widely regarded as the top student city in North America, Montréal attracts students from around the world with its warm welcome, safety and cultural diversity.

The city’s appeal also lies in the quality of the programs offered, low tuition fees (the lowest on the continent) and the many job opportunities available once studies are completed. It’s also an ideal place for young entrepreneurs. No wonder Montréal ranks at the top of the list of North American student cities.

TOURISME / MONTREAL
The city’s historic district, which has been reinventing itself for nearly 400 years, includes its oldest and most recent tourist attractions.

In Old Montréal, history is present on every street corner. Cobblestone streets lined with historic buildings house art galleries, craft workshops, fashion boutiques, restaurants and cafés.

In the Old Port, residents and visitors love to walk along its recreational paths to engage in activities offered year round, while enjoying a splendid view of the city and the St. Lawrence River.
East of Old Montréal

City Hall

Map p. 90
275 Notre-Dame Street East | Champ-de-Mars
514 872-0077 | ville.montreal.qc.ca

The building went up between 1872 and 1878, and survived a severe fire in 1922. And it was from this balcony that French President General de Gaulle uttered his famous “Vive le Québec libre!” (Long live free Québec) during a state visit in 1967. Nearby, inaugurated in 1856, the old courthouse subscribed to the very sober neoclassical tradition typical of the first half of the 19th century. The 1925 version (Ernest-Cormier building) featured a return to classic simplicity and the new one (1 Notre-Dame Street) deals with criminal matters. At the back of City Hall, Champ-de-Mars offers a superb view of downtown Montréal and fascinating historical remains. Currently closed for renovations.

Marché Bonsecours

Map p. 90
350 Saint-Paul Street East | Champ-de-Mars
marchebonsecours.com

The Marché Bonsecours was inaugurated in 1847. A symbol of Montréal’s heyday, this imposing building was the city’s main agricultural marketplace for over a century. It also housed a concert hall and even served as a city hall. It features now sidewalk cafés, Québec artisans shops and exhibitions.

Marguerite Bourgeois Historic Site

Map p. 90
400 Saint-Paul Street East | Champ-de-Mars
514 282-8670 | margueritebourgeois.org

Montréal’s oldest chapel, also known as the Sailors’ Church, is a captivating history museum. Feel a special connection with the past by visiting the 18th-century stone crypt, and climb the tower to admire the spectacular views. The archaeological site reveals over 2,400 years of history. Discover the chapel and museum through a downloadable audio guide.

Place Jacques-Cartier and Place De La Dauversière

Map p. 90
Old Montréal | Champ-de-Mars | vieuxmontreal.ca

The gentle slope down from the Nelson monument affords a superb view of the Old Port. Built in 1804, Place Jacques-Cartier was used as a public market for many years. It now draws passers-by and visitors who enjoy street artists. Facing City Hall, Place De La Dauversière is a magnificent public garden.

Pierre du Calvet House

Map p. 90
401 Bonsecours Street | Champ-de-Mars
old.montreal.qc.ca

Built in the 18th century, this house is one of the most beautiful examples of the urban architecture developed in New France. Particularly striking are its massive crude rock walls, chimneys and steeply-sloped roof. Pierre du Calvet, its illustrious occupant, was a supporter of the American Revolution and held meetings with Benjamin Franklin, an envoy sent abroad by George Washington in 1775-1776.
Sir George-Etienne Cartier
National Historic Site

458 Notre-Dame Street East  |  Champ-de-Mars
514 283-2282  |  parkscanada.gc.ca/cartier

Discover the only Victorian interior open to the public in Montréal. Meticulously restored according to the tastes and customs of the Montréal bourgeoisie around 1860, the Historic Site commemorates the life and work of this renowned politician, Father of Confederation.

Gare Viger
700 Saint-Antoine Street East  |  Champ-de-Mars
vieux.montreal.qc.ca

Viger Station was the terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railway’s network. The château style station, and hotel of the same name, was completed in 1897 and built according to the traditional layout of all British railway hotels, in which trains would arrive directly in the hotel lobby to maximize convenience for travellers. It is the only site in North America with three train stations of historical significance still standing fully intact. This rich architectural site is currently under development as a mixed-use structure, already home to offices and a restaurant.

Château Ramezay – Historic Site and Museum of Montréal
280 Notre-Dame Street East  |  Champ-de-Mars
514 861-3708  |  chateauramezay.qc.ca

$12
The Château invites you to relive more than 500 years of history, from the pre-contact Indigenous era to the 20th century. The Château exhibits its collections in a variety of ways, intermingled with multimedia portrayals of historical figures recounting, in six languages, highlights of their lives at the manor. The site includes the Governor’s Garden, a typically delightful 18th-century urban retreat.

ITINERARY B

West of Old Montréal

Saint-Paul and de la Commune Streets
Old Montréal  |  Champ-de-Mars  |  vieuxmontreal.ca

For years, Saint-Paul Street was Montréal’s main street. Many of the buildings, which date from the 19th century, have been renovated and today serve as boutiques, art galleries, artists’ studios and even homes. Those cobblestone streets overflow with warm, inviting restaurants, lively bars, nightclubs and seductive lounges.

Montréal On Wheels
27 de la Commune Street East  |  Place-d’Armes
514 866-0633  |  caroulemontreal.com

Bike tours allow for exploring Montréal’s history, neighbourhoods, architecture, cuisine and quirky sides. Located on the bike path, this is the largest two-wheel rental centre in the city with a fleet of 150 bikes (regular bikes or ebikes). May to October.

Cours Le Royer (Hôtel-Dieu Stores)
Corner of Saint-Paul West and Saint-Sulpice Streets  |  Place-d’Armes  |  vieuxmontreal.ca/en/business/cours-le-royer-2

Many large buildings-warehouse-stores erected in the 1860s and 70s eloquently attest to the commercial vitality of the area during the city’s industrialization. The stores built at that time, at the former Hôtel-Dieu site, are a striking example of technological innovation combined with refined architectural style. It is the first major example of contemporary reuse of an ancient commercial sector. Today, the buildings serve as offices, businesses and residences.
Notre-Dame Basilica of Montréal
Map p. 90 / Ad p. 81
110 Notre-Dame Street West | Place-d’Armes
514 842-2925 | basiliquenotredame.ca
$14
A masterpiece of Gothic Revival architecture, Notre-Dame Basilica was built between 1824 and 1829. The magnificent interior in wood and the boldly modern design of the Notre-Dame-du-Sacre-Coeur Chapel, captivate hundreds of thousands of visitors each year. Paintings, sculptures and stained-glass windows illustrate biblical passages as well as 350 years of parish history. To learn more about the Basilica, take part in a self-guided tour where you will be invited to explore 24 points of interest. After your tour, stay for AURA, an immersive light and sound show experience.

Place d’Armes
Map p. 90
Old Montréal | Place-d’Armes | vieuxmontreal.ca/en
The surrounding buildings are remarkable mementos of all the major milestones in the city’s history. Since 1895, a statue of Paul de Chomedey, “Sieur de Maisonneuve,” the founder of Montréal, stands in the centre. Nearby is the city’s oldest building, the “Vieux Séminaire” (130 Notre-Dame Street West), erected between 1684 and 1687, by the Messrs of Saint-Sulpice who ran the Notre-Dame parish and were “seigneurs” of the island of Montréal for nearly two centuries. The Bank of Montréal (119 Saint-Jacques Street West), founded in 1817, is the oldest banking institution in Canada and houses a museum open to the public.

Montréal en Histoires – Cité Mémoire
Map p. 90
Champ-de-Mars | 514 666-1861
montrealenhistoires.com
History comes to life with Cité Mémoire, an art installation that shines light on the city’s illustrious past. It is the largest projection circuit in the world. 27 astonishing scenes are projected on walls, in alleys, on the ground and on trees. This expansive projection circuit features 100 points of interest and 32 augmented reality experiences. In a poetic, dreamlike and sometimes playful manner, a medley of characters offer first-hand accounts of how the city has evolved over the course of history. Download the free “Montréal en Histoires” mobile app available in four languages. Guided tours also available.

Centaur Theatre Company
Map p. 90
453 Saint-François-Xavier Street | Place-d’Armes
514 288-3161 | centaurtheatre.com
Home of the former Montréal Stock Exchange, Centaur is Québec’s premier English-language theatre company. Founded in 1969 by Maurice Podbrey and Herbert C. Auerbach, Centaur presents a piece lineup ranging from contemporary Canadian dramas and Broadway hits, to international talent.

Saint-Jacques Street and The Royal Bank
Map p. 90
360 Saint-Jacques Street | Place-d’Armes
vieuxmontreal.ca
This street was also known as Canada’s “Wall Street”. Its heyday in the 1920s is reflected in the Royal Bank’s former head office at 360 Saint-Jacques Street, erected in 1928, next to the attractive Molson Bank, built in 1866. With 23 floors, it was, at the time of its construction, the tallest building in the British Empire.

PHI Foundation for Contemporary Art
Map p. 90 / Ad p. 102
451 and 465 Saint-Jean Street
Square-Victoria-OACI | 514 849-3742
phi-foundation.org
A premier venue dedicated to the presentation of contemporary art. Each year, the Fondation Phi presents exciting and relevant exhibitions, a series of public events, special collaborative projects and an innovative education program.
Located in a meticulously-restored historic building, the PHI Centre buzzes with original and eclectic artistic activity. This multifunctional site includes an art gallery, cinema, theatre, performance space, and production facilities. This exciting hub of creation for art in all its forms proposes an innovative and inspiring program of the highest quality, including major exhibitions that push boundaries by plunging us into a sensorial universe with virtual reality (VR).

The Place was built above the bed of the Little Saint-Pierre River, which was canalized in 1832. An obelisk on the site recalls its first pioneers. On the south side, between Normand and Saint-Pierre Streets, you can see the former hospital of the Grey Nuns, part of which dates back to 1693. Buildings from the 1870s and the beginning of the 20th century underscore the importance of this business hub situated in proximity to the port. Between the Centre d’histoire and Pointe-à-Callière stands the site of the Grande Paix de Montréal, signed in 1701.

The Fonderie Darling is a contemporary art centre showcasing various forms of modern art. Its mission is to support the creation, production and dissemination of emerging artists’ work.

The Old Port is filled with unique activities and view points. In the summer, you can relax at the Clock Tower Beach, rent pedal boats, bicycles or quadricycles, enjoy a guided heritage tour (see Guided tours), or take a cruise on the river, at full speed or nice and easy with a gourmet meal. Stroll by the Grand Quay and admire one of the majestic liners that stop over in Montréal, have a drink on the terrace of a bistro, or delight in the many food trucks. The Old Port is also home to the Montréal Science Centre and its IMAX® theatre. In winter, fireworks, Igloofest festival, a large outdoor skating rink and a host of activities enliven this magical part of the city.

Marine enthusiasts can wile away the hours at The Port Centre and discover the Port’s timeline, which is closely linked to the development of Montréal or see its free and exciting marine exhibition.

Did you know?

Jeanne Mance, an icon of Montréal
After almost three centuries in the shadow of Paul de Chomedey, Sieur de Maisonneuve, long regarded as the sole founder in the city, Jeanne Mance was recognized as co-founder of Montréal in 2012. Jeanne Mance played a major role in establishing the city in 1642. Upon her arrival, she established and ran the Hôtel-Dieu Hospital, demonstrating great courage and devotion.

A statue of Jeanne Mance, now an iconic historical figure for the city, has a place of honour on the Maisonneuve Monument in Place d’Armes in Old Montréal. Another statue, the Jeanne Mance Monument across from Hôtel-Dieu Hospital on Pine Avenue, pays tribute to this extraordinary woman.

In the middle of the St. Lawrence River, Parc Jean-Drapeau, developed on Île Sainte-Hélène and Île Notre-Dame, offers a multitude of attractions and activities.

Its versatile trails, including 25 km of bicycle paths, offer magnificent panoramic views of the river and downtown. Fifteen public artworks of great value — including Calder’s immense stabile, Man — are exhibited there permanently. In every season, the park hosts many music festivals, a fireworks competition, international sports events and popular festivals. Parc Jean-Drapeau is also home to the Casino de Montréal, which was built into the former France and Québec pavilions from Expo 67. Quite the architectural legacy!
The Jacques Cartier Bridge

Inaugurated in 1931 as the Harbour Bridge, this link between Longueuil and Montréal was renamed in 1934 in honour of Jacques Cartier, the French explorer and first European to describe and map the St. Lawrence River. The digital and interactive lighting of the bridge smoothly forms part of its structure and is in harmony with the colours of each season and the energy of the city.

La Ronde

This large amusement park, located near the city centre, offers more than 40 rides and attractions, dazzling shows, as well as entertainment. Thrill seekers will want to take on extreme roller coasters like the Goliath, while the youngsters or the least daring will have fun in Ribambelle’s Land, a colorful family section. In summer, La Ronde also produces and presents L’International des Feux Loto-Québec, the annual Montréal International Fireworks Competition, and every weekend of October, its annual Halloween Fright Fest.

Fort de l’Île Ste-Hélène

The Fort de l’Île Sainte-Hélène is a 19th-century military construction. Few people know that it was used as a place of detention for 400 Italian merchant seamen and civilians during World War II. Access to the inner courtyard is to be confirmed for 2022.

Aquatic Complex at Parc Jean-Drapeau

The Aquatic Complex at Parc Jean-Drapeau boasts an international-calibre competition pool, a diving pool and a gradual-slope recreational pool for families with young children. Why not take the opportunity to cool off, relax your muscles, swim a few lengths or take a family dip?

Drone Tours

Experience a unique view of Montréal’s spectacular sights with a live stream to high resolution FPV goggles. You’ll feel like you’re flying, with your feet firmly planted on the ground! This in-destination state-of-the-art flight experience offers 360° immersion, complete with a narrated history of iconic sights along the way. End of May to October.

Eco Tours

Safe, ecological and fun guided tours aboard a kayak or canoe, around the lush green lagoons and paths that cross the enchanting scenery of Sainte-Hélène and Notre-Dame islands. On the program, history of the islands, amazing fauna and flora, emblematic places, works of public art and some of Expo 67 pavilions. Want to explore solo? Éco Tours Montréal also offers self-service bicycle, quadricycle, kayak, pedal boat and canoe rentals. May to September.

An initiative of Tourisme / Montréal
Mount Royal and Outremont

Every stay in Montréal should include a stroll on Mount Royal, a jewel of greenery in the heart of the city.

Mount Royal owes its name to Jacques Cartier who christened it in 1535. The mountain is the meeting place for nature lovers, amateur ornithologists and sports enthusiasts of all ages. Crisscrossed by trails and topped with lookouts, which offer breathtaking views of the city, its slopes accommodate the campuses of two universities, two immense cemeteries and Saint Joseph’s Oratory. And down below, two upscale neighbourhoods, Outremont and Westmount, with lush green streets, opulent houses, and beautiful boutiques.
Mount Royal Park

Inaugurated in 1876, the Mount Royal Park was designed by Frederick Law Olmsted, the highly skilled designer behind New York’s Central Park. It is an ideal site for admiring a wide variety of plants and birds or for enjoying outdoor activities. Les amis de la montagne offer a variety of services and activities that provide wonderful opportunities to discover the beauty and wealth of resources that the park has to offer, including a permanent exhibition at Smith House. Mount Royal Chalet was inaugurated in 1932. The walls of its spacious interior are decorated with pictures tracing the history of Montréal, including many painted by famous artists. The Kondiaronk scenic lookout in front of the Chalet offers a striking view of the downtown area and the St. Lawrence River. Erected in 1924, the cross atop Mount Royal commemorates January 6, 1643, when Maisonneuve, Montréal’s founder, kept his promise to carry a wooden cross to the summit of Mount Royal if the young colony survived flooding. Today, the cross stands 30 metres (98 feet) high and when lit, can be seen from miles away.

Smith House

Built in 1858, this example of neoclassical rural architecture was once the home of a wealthy merchant and businessman. At the time, Mount Royal was indeed an oasis of freshness and tranquility sought by the bourgeois who wanted to get away from the polluted and overcrowded St. Lawrence bank. Today, in addition to offering welcome services, such as visitor information, a café, a gift shop and a permanent exhibition that highlights the history of this iconic natural landmark, Smith House is home to Les amis de la montagne, a non-profit organization that protects, improves and promotes the sustainability of Montréal’s Mount Royal.

Mount Royal Cemetery

Founded in 1852, the Mount Royal Cemetery is one of the oldest rural cemeteries in North America. Visitors can observe some 145 species of birds and century-old trees along trails or amid gardens and terraces. Historical guided tours recall the life of famous figures who are buried here.
Université de Montréal

Founded in 1878, the Université de Montréal now counts 13 faculties. Together with its two affiliated schools, it represents one of North America’s largest educational centres, ranking first in Québec and second in Canada for higher education and research. Its main Art Deco-style building, designed by Ernest Cormier, was completed in 1943.

Centre d’exposition de l’Université de Montréal

The Centre presents exhibitions that address a variety of fields, including the humanities, arts, and sciences. It also promotes interdisciplinary communication through shows and activities, stimulating both imagination and thought. Its permanent exhibition, Art pour tous, featuring 41 public artworks, is presented on the campus and on the Web.

Côte-des-Neiges Streets

On the western slope of Mount Royal, the Côte-des-Neiges district is renowned for its ties to knowledge, spirituality and multiculturalism. This beautiful verdant neighbourhood is home to some 80 cultural communities as well as a large student population, many of whom attend the Université de Montréal. To this, add other high-profile institutions such as major hospital centers and colleges, and HEC university school of administration, and it’s not surprising that immigrants from around the world as well as families choose to settle in this lively neighbourhood. The district is teeming with multicultural shops, pubs, cafés and restaurants serving authentic world cuisine, but you’ll find poutine as well! In summer, the public market is open 24 hours a day. Magnificent Saint Joseph’s Oratory perches high above with the Placette Côte-des-Neiges below, a lively pedestrian street where you’ll love to take a break!

Museum and Saint Joseph’s Oratory of Mount Royal

It is one of the world’s most visited centres of pilgrimage. Its founder, Saint Brother André began construction in 1904. The shrine includes a majestic building whose dome reaches 97 metres (second only in height to Saint Peter’s Basilica in Rome), the small original chapel, a votive chapel, a crypt, gardens of the way of the cross, a basilica that can accommodate close to 2,000 worshippers. Its magnificent organs and its carillon composed of 56 bells give audible testament to the world’s great composers. The Oratory Museum is dedicated mainly to sacred art. Renowned for its exceptional collection of crèches of the world, the museum displays works of religious, historical, and artistic heritage from Québec and abroad.

The Museum tells the story of Jewish communities before, during, and after the Holocaust. Through the life stories of Montréal survivors, visitors are invited to reflect on the destruction engendered by prejudice, racism and antisemitism.

Outremont Streets

Map p. 88
Outremont

Bernard Avenue, located in a charming residential and business area of Outremont, hosts turn-of-the-century architecture housing restaurants and design boutiques. Du Parc Avenue, since the 1950s, has been the home of Montréal's Greek community, its restaurants and pastry shops. Known for its gourmet tables and lively terraces, Laurier Avenue West is also known as a high-end destination for independent businesses as well as local creators and designers who offer, among other things, exclusive clothing, original home accessories and uniquely designed furniture. Alongside du Parc Avenue lies Jeanne-Mance Park, named in honour of the founder of Montréal’s first hospital, Hôtel-Dieu de Montréal. Just across from Jeanne-Mance Park, on the slopes of Mount Royal, is the site of the tam-tam concerts, held every Sunday in the summertime.

Rialto Theatre

Map p. 88
5723 du Parc Avenue | Place-des-Arts | 80 North
514 770-7773 | rialtotheatre.ca

Built in 1923-24 to plans by Montréal architect Joseph-Raoul Gariepy, the Rialto is inspired by Le Palais Garnier (Opéra de Paris). The building comprises several rooms and activities include concerts, theatre, cinema, dance performances, exhibitions, galas, cocktail parties and others, all in a lush environment that boasts marble staircases, painted ceilings, gilded mouldings, and a Tiffany stained-glass dome. The Rialto is one of the jewels of Montréal’s heritage.

Did you know?

- Montréal is located at 73° west longitude and 45° north latitude, just like Venice, Geneva, Lyon and Milan.
- The Island of Montréal covers a total surface area of 500 km² (193 sq. miles). By comparison, Manhattan’s surface area is 59.1 km² (22.8 sq. miles).
- Our “mountain,” Mount Royal, has an altitude of 233 m. If you’ve heard that it’s a former volcano, well, it’s not.
- The territory of the Montréal agglomeration has 75 islands, while the metropolitan area is made up of more than 380 islands.
- The St. Lawrence River ranks as the 17th largest waterway in the world. You can surf on its “Vague à Guy,” a constant wave.

Looking for things to do this week in Montréal?

1001 activities, 1 destination.
The eclecticism, creative energy and bohemian spirit emanating from these two dynamic urban hubs are appreciated.

Cafés, bars, shops, bookstores and restaurants are side by side with former textile mills and churches converted into businesses or condos. A true nerve centre of the Montréal artistic community, the Plateau stands out for its lively commercial avenues, its charming shaded residential streets, its colourful houses and its celebrated spiral staircases. Marginal and cosmopolitan, Mile End is totally in tune with the times. Unearth vintage finds, enjoy original dishes, and don’t forget the famous Montréal bagels.

As soon as the first fine spring weather arrives, people flock in droves to Parc La Fontaine to relax in the shade, to enjoy a picnic and sunbathe. The artificial pond allows visitors to observe a wide range of bird species throughout the summer season and in winter, the pond is transformed into a skating rink complete with music and heated skate rental facilities at the park’s Chalet where restaurant services are also available. The Chalet is also the departure point of the park’s miniature train which delightfully crisscrosses the paths of the park. An outdoor theatre presents events during the summer.

Laurier

Running from the neighbourhood of the Plateau-Mont-Royal through Outremont, where you will reach the base of Mount Royal, you’ll find charming, typically designed Montréal homes lining its green sidewalks. Bustling shops, quaint cafes and tantalizing restaurants give visitors and locals plenty to see and do. Stop along the avenue to enjoy an espresso al fresco, to pick up an exquisite home décor item or to play a round of pétanque in the Sir-Wilfrid-Laurier Park. Please see the section on “Mount Royal and Outremont” in the tourist guide for more information on the streets of Outremont.

Le Marché des Possibles

An outdoor public space hosting cultural events in the summer to reflect the neighbourhood’s creativity and festive community spirit. It features a free and diversified socio-cultural programming that includes musical performances, screenings of films and activities for children. On the premises, you will also find a bar and a biergarten, a market with artists and artisans creations, as well as delicious food provided by local chefs and pop-up restaurants. End of June to mid-August.

Musée des Hospitalières de l’Hôtel-Dieu de Montréal

136 Map p. 89
201 des Pins Avenue West | Sherbrooke | 514 849-2919 | museedeshospitalieres.qc.ca

The museum showcases one of the best-preserved convent ensembles in the city. The complex, built in 1861, includes the former monastery and garden, the hospital, three chapels, a crypt and the museum, located in the former residence of the chaplains. The museum retraces four centuries of Montréal’s rich history, the practice of hospital care, medicine and pharmacy as well as the sacred arts. Guided tours of the garden, monastery, chapel and crypt are offered year round.
Saint-Laurent Boulevard

Between Sherbrooke and Bernard Streets mêlée Saint-Laurent + 55 North boulevardsaintlaurent.com

Also known as “The Main,” Saint-Laurent Boulevard is one of the most with-it streets in Montréal. It’s where you go to enjoy the rich variety and texture of city life. Take a culinary tour around the globe in its many restaurants. Delight in the creativity of its talented designers goods. Enjoy the summer MURAL Festival, which has turned the boulevard into one of North America’s major centres for street art. Let yourself go into its bars and clubs. Its authentic personality and architecture are the product of over 300 years of history. From the 20th century on, newcomers to Canada chose Saint-Laurent to live and to work, and today its residents and businesses testify to its varied origins. It is a symbolic thoroughfare, marking the point where the city’s French-speaking, English-speaking and immigrant communities meet. It is a true reflection of Canadian multiculturalism.

Dyad

80 Prince Arthur Street East | 438 380-9880 | dyadcycles.com

Dyad is a one-stop shop where bikes and scooters can be rented and patrons can sign up for guided scooter tours of Montréal. These entertaining cultural outings (including food tastings) offer participants the chance to ride electric scooters through the city’s most vibrant neighbourhoods. No driver’s license required. For participants aged 18 years or older.

Prince-Arthur Street

During the ‘60s, Prince-Arthur Street was “the” hippie haven in Montréal. Today a favourite among pedestrian streets, it is extremely lively during summer. Street artists and musicians add character to this restaurant and café-terrasse strewn neighbourhood. Prince-Arthur Street leads to the architecturally rich Square Saint-Louis with its imposing 19th century homes. Attracting well-to-do French-Canadian families to the area in the early 1800s, a number of artists also made their homes around Square Saint-Louis, including renowned poet Émile Nelligan.

Saint-Denis Street – between Gilford and Roy Streets

Saint-Denis Street may be on the cutting edge of hip, but its 19th-century heritage charm provides the perfect backdrop to this neighbourhood’s bohemian vibe. With its sidewalk cafés, lively bar scene, trendy boutiques and fine restaurants, Saint-Denis Street is an important shopping street. Designers, art shops and bookstores all beckon. And when shopping is done, strollers can rest their feet and watch the world go by from a sunny outdoor café.

Saint-Jean-Baptiste Church

Built in 1872, the church was destroyed by fire in 1898 and 1911 before being rebuilt in 1912. A Baroque Revival-inspired work of monumental proportions, it is one of the largest churches in Montréal. Concerts are held regularly here.

Mont-Royal Avenue

A great place to shop, Mont-Royal Avenue is full of little treasures: fashion boutiques, bookstores, vinyl record stores, cheese shops, bakeries, restaurants, bars and specialty grocery stores. Summer or winter, in restaurants or cafés, the Plateau’s bohemian residents meet up at Place Gérald-Godin and take part in open markets, torchlight walks, and other events that invigorate the Avenue.

Montréal’s fascinating neighbourhoods

● Since 1997, Montréal has converted dozens of its back alleys into greenspaces. Initiated by volunteer citizens, the “Ruelles vertes” project helps residents make over Montréal’s laneways and improve the quality of urban life.

● Montréal is considered the official balcony capital, with more than one and a half million balconies. Fun fact: 71% of metropolitan area residents have at least one!

● One of the most common building materials used for Montréal houses is a limestone known as “Montréal Greystone.” It was extracted from local limestone quarries, which have now become some of the city’s beloved neighbourhood parks: Laurier, Marquette and Maisonneuve.

● The outer staircases that grace many Montréal homes are one of the city’s distinctive features and can be found in all different shapes and sizes — L-and S-shaped, straight, single and double. This architectural feature emerged in the mid-19th century, when the construction of two-and three-storey dwellings began in order to accommodate a growing population. Builders soon realized that having common stairways outside made the homes more heat efficient. They were able to take advantage of new municipal regulations requiring the conservation of a small green space in front of homes, which provided space for the external staircases.

● In 1905, Saint-Laurent Street officially became Saint-Laurent Boulevard, affectionately nicknamed “The Main.”

● As the city’s central East-West dividing line, The Main became the starting point for municipal addresses extending outward from the boulevard. In 1924, addresses along the North-South axis were renumbered, starting at the southernmost point, the St. Lawrence River.

● July 1 is also known among Montréal residents as “Moving Day.” Each year, 100,000 Montréal households move on this day. This July 1 tradition most likely comes to us from Scottish settlers, who brought with them the tradition of a fixed date (May 1) for “breaking” their lease in order to find a new home. Eventually the date changed to July 1 to avoid disrupting the school year.

● Montréal is home to the Canadian Centre for Architecture, whose purpose is to promote public awareness about the role architecture plays in society. The CCA also promotes scholarly architectural research and fosters innovative design practices.
Nature museums, Olympic Park, green alleys, cafés and bistros provide the atypical charm of this Montréal district.

Originally a Francophone working-class neighbourhood, Hochelaga-Maisonneuve never stops reinventing itself and diversifying, without losing its identity. The place maintains its welcoming atmosphere and the present lives side by side with the past, still visible in its revamped warehouses and factories, its imposing churches and its lovely market. Just north of Hochelaga-Maisonneuve is the residential borough of Rosemont, equally quaint and genuine, with an impressive share of urban villages, each with its own winning personality. With its four museums devoted to nature, its green spaces and its must-see Olympic Park, the Olympic District is just waiting to be explored.
An international symbol of Montréal, the Olympic Stadium — and its Tower, the world’s tallest inclined tower — was designed by French architect, Roger Taillibert, and built as the main venue for the 1976 Summer Olympics. Its Esplanade, an urban park made up of nine platforms, also offers a breathtaking view of the Stadium and the Tower. Guides are happy to accompany visitors inside this bold and complex architectural masterpiece and to share both the technical details of its construction and anecdotes gleaned over the years and events. The Sports Centre features seven basins for water sports, training areas, and state-of-the-art equipment.

The parc Maisonneuve is 63 hectares of green space with facilities for many sporting activities, including a lighted skating rink and a nine-hole municipal golf course.

The new Insectarium: A complete metamorphosis! Peek into the very small world of insects as they move around in total freedom. Wonder and curiosity awaits as you enjoy an immersive experience that will transform your relationship with these tiny creatures.

An oasis in the middle of the city for over 80 years, the Montréal Botanical Garden is recognized as one of the largest and most beautiful in the world. Its rich collection of 22,000 plant species and cultivars, its 10 exhibition greenhouses, the Frédéric Back Tree Pavilion and some 30 thematic gardens make the venue exceptional. Its magnificent cultural gardens invite you to get to know the Chinese, Japanese and First Nations through their botanical traditions. To this, add a full calendar of events, activities and exhibitions to pique your interest, cultivate your admiration and teach you a few things along the way.

A visit to the Château Dufresne is a voyage into the private world of a middle-class francophone family from the early 20th century, that of the brothers Oscar and Marius Dufresne. The domestic interiors of the two separate houses they lived in reflect the appeal of monumental architecture in the Beaux-Arts style, as well as a taste for opulence and the latest styles. There, too, you will find the secular masterpieces of the Italian-born artist Guido Nincheri along with interior decoration and painted furniture by the Belgian painter Alfred Faniel.

A large urban green space with flowers and vegetables at the foot of the Olympic Stadium, Les Jardineries is a sustainable and eco-responsible re-appropriation of post-Olympics infrastructures. In this big landscaped garden, there is a bistro with a large illuminated terrace, a greenhouse, a circular beach, picnic tables and hammocks and a host of games and activities for all. Les Jardineries also welcomes visitors old and young to celebrate the joys of winter. Feel the rush on the mini-slides, enjoy a game of petanque-on-ice, and warm up in the chalet sipping a cup of hot chocolate!
Hochelaga-Maisonneuve Streets

Historically a thriving industrial municipality and a largely francophone working-class neighbourhood, Hochelaga-Maisonneuve is where real life happens: people getting on with their day-to-day, going to work, to the market, to school, to the park...it’s a lively urban village with a friendly, small-town feel. From recycled factories to beautiful churches to striking institutional buildings, such as the Maisonneuve Library, the Morgan Bath and the Maisonneuve Market, to name a few, the borough’s architectural landscape tells a tale of transformation and evolution. Hochelaga-Maisonneuve now offers an eclectic mix of small local businesses. There’s always something new to discover, with a wealth of new restaurants, cafés, local artisans, designers and socially-responsible boutiques ever-adding to the neighbourhood’s allure. In summer, Ontario and Sainte-Catherine Street East transform into a festive outdoor venue: streets are closed off to traffic, patios are buzzing, sidewalk sales abound and people just come out to experience the Hochelaga-Maisonneuve summertime vibe.

Maisonneuve Market

Housed in a modern building, Maisonneuve Market offers the variety of products found at large markets: flowers, fruits, vegetables, meats, cheese, fish, baked goods and locally-made products. Standing in a lively square, the Beaux-Arts-style building is the former site of the old market, built before World War I.

Horizon Roc Climbing Center

With more than 300 routes on over 3,000 m² (31,000 ft²) of climbable area, including a new block structure and a 15-metre-high speed wall, Horizon Roc is one of the largest climbing centres in the world. The Village, one of the most important gay districts in North America, is a crossroads of diversity.

Its greatest success is probably the mixing up of a flavourful urban cocktail bringing together the LGBTQ+ and straight communities. Its bustling nightlife and fine cuisine, as well as its comfortable bed-and-breakfasts in century-old houses, antique and specialty shops, enchant everyone. With Sainte-Catherine Street as its main artery, The Village extends from east to west round the Beaudry métro station, wearing the rainbow colours of the gay community.
The Village Streets
Map p. 94

The neighbourhood features a wide variety of service industries including cafés, boutiques, antique shops and restaurants for every palate. To really get a feel for the place, take a stroll along the narrow, winding, side streets, particularly Lartigue Street, and admire the carefully restored brick homes and shaded backyard gardens.

Stroll along Atateken Street and visit the antique shops that specialize in objects from the 1930s to the 1970s while the Art Deco architecture of the impressive Saint-Jacques Market building and the Écomusée du fier monde are worthy of admiration.

During the summer season, Sainte-Catherine Street turns into a lively pedestrian zone. But the LGBTQ+ Village hums all year long. Lounges, bars, boîtes, afterhours clubs and drag queens are all part of the Village entertainment scene.

Around the Jean-Talon Market, people take life easy, like la dolce vita.

Villeray and Little Italy developed at the end of the 19th century, driven by industrialization and the arrival of the streetcar. Ristorante, trattorie, pasticcerie, caffe: you are in the heart of Piccola Italia, or Little Italy, which earned this name after a large wave of Italian immigration. Villeray stands out for its cultural diversity and its typically Montréal residential architecture. To appreciate this gourmet paradise, go shopping in the market, have a little cup of espresso in a café and a tasty meal — plan for a full day.

The vibrant neighbourhood contains more than a few cultural treasures. Churches, shops and cafés are always popular with both the Italian community and Montrealers alike. A community centre housing several Italian associations, the Casa d’Italia was built in 1936 in the Modern style by the architect Patsy Colangelo. Along Saint-Denis and Drolet Streets you can see the typical Montréal residential architecture of the early 20th century, with the exterior, wrought iron, winding staircases. Saint-Laurent Boulevard and Dante Street are lined with trattorias, cafés and boutiques.

The Notre-Dame-de-la-Défense Church (Our Lady of Protection or Madonna della Difesa, in Italian) was built in 1919 by the architect R. Montbirant based on the drawings of the artist Guido Nincheri. Born in Florence, this Montréal artist also painted the church’s remarkable frescoes. The altar and balustrade date from 1950 and are made of Carrara marble. Next to the church, Dante Park celebrates the illustrious 14th-century poet and is a favourite meeting place for bocce players and passersby.

Cradle of jazz music in the 1920s.

Between the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century, Little Burgundy, known in French as La Petite-Bourgogne, has long been hailed as the “Harlem of the North.” The neighbourhood welcomed new arrivals from African-Canadian communities in Ontario and the Maritimes.

During Prohibition, many American musicians came to perform in the jazz clubs of Little Burgundy, since Montréal was more open and tolerant of dance, music and alcohol than its neighbour to the south.

Several internationally recognized artists, like Oscar Peterson and Oliver Jones, grew up in this neighbourhood.

The Victoria Bridge

The first bridge to span the St. Lawrence River and the longest railway bridge in the world at the time, the Victoria Bridge, completed in 1859, represented an engineering feat that was hailed as “Eighth Wonder of the World”.

Connecting the island of Montréal to the South Shore, the bridge was gradually modified to adjust to the changing realities of transportation. A tram line was installed in 1901 and, in 1927, the side sections were widened to allow for automobile traffic.

The Jacques Cartier Bridge

Inaugurated as the Harbour Bridge in 1931, this link between Longueuil and Montréal was rebaptized the Jacques Cartier Bridge three years later in honour of the French explorer and cartographer, and first European to map the St. Lawrence River.

The world’s first “connected” bridge, Jacques Cartier Bridge lights up every night with flashes of colour over the St. Lawrence River. An iconic landmark during the day, it livens up at sundown and reflects the mood and events of the day until dawn.

The Samuel De Champlain Bridge

Named in honour of Samuel De Champlain, French explorer and navigator, the Champlain Bridge opened to traffic in 1962. Due to increased traffic and its subsequent wear and tear, a new bridge was built to replace it. The Samuel De Champlain Bridge opened to traffic in 2019.

Majestically spanning the St. Lawrence River, its sleek, elegant lines and outstanding architectural quality affords a distinctive visual identity that enhances the Montréal landscape. Similarly to the Jacques Cartier Bridge, the Samuel De Champlain Bridge lights up on special occasions.
People go there for cycling and water sports or to relax in its vast green spaces.

Once a centre of the fur trade, Le Pôle des Rapides lends itself to boating in all its forms. The most daring can offer themselves the total experience and confront the impetuous rapids, aboard a super powerful jetboat or on a rafting excursion. The shores of the St. Lawrence River are also a refuge for migratory birds.

Sports and nature lovers, take note. Filled with a vibrant community spirit, the sympathetic Verdun district, with its typical spiral staircase houses, dynamic shops and lively cafés and restaurants will charm you.
The Samuel De Champlain Bridge is set to become Montréal's new emblem. Stretching some 3.4 kilometres, it is one of the busiest bridges in North America and one of the widest in the world. Its sleek, elegant lines and suspended cable-stayed section affords a distinctive visual identity that enhances the Montréal landscape. Two three-lane traffic corridors, one lane reserved for public transit — designed with REM light rail in mind — and a safe, multipurpose lane open year-round for cyclists and pedestrians.

Maison Saint-Gabriel, Museum and Historic Site
2146 Place Dublin | Pointe-Saint-Charles
Set amidst farmhouse gardens recreated in the spirit of the 17th century, the Maison Saint-Gabriel is the oldest example of rural habitation in Montréal. Purchased by Marguerite Bourgeoys in 1668, this two-storey fieldstone residence once housed the Filles du Roy. It is considered one of the finest examples of traditional Québec architecture existing today. Dynamic interpreter-guides captivate visitors with interesting facts and engaging stories and, before heading back to modern day, stop by the museum’s gift shop and tea room to pick up local original items that reflect history and rural life and to relax as you look out from the outdoor terrace. A mobile website and sound tour extends your experience around the Museum as well as the boroughs of Sud-Ouest, Verdun, LaSalle and Lachine, offering more than 60 points of interest along a route extending 17 km.

Maison Nivard-De Saint-Dizier, musée et site archéologique
7244 LaSalle Blvd. | Verdun | 58 West
The Maison Nivard-De Saint-Dizier is both a museum and an outstanding example of rural architecture of New France. The house, built in 1710, sits on the largest pre-historic archeological site ever discovered on the island of Montréal, revealing occupation by Indigenous peoples that dates back over 5,500 years ago. The venue offers a permanent exhibition and cultural activities (stories, music, conferences, workshops). May to mid-October.

Parc des Rapides
Corner of LaSalle Blvd. and 7th Avenue | LaSalle
A landscaped lookout has explanatory panels telling the story of the rapids and the former hydroelectric station. The park is also known as a refuge for migrating birds, sheltering over 225 species. The rapids live up to the wildest expectations of white-water rafters and kayakers.

Players navigate three multi-level mazes that are, at once, obscure and confusing. The mazes consist of partitions, reflective areas, and obstacles of all kinds, and they are overlooked by mezzanines and bridges. The goal of each player is to find and disable all their opponents. The experience is an updated version of laser tag enabled by 100% laser technology.
Musée des métiers d’art du Québec

Reflecting the cultural diversity of Quebec, the Musée des Métiers d’Art du Québec (MUMAQ) values the best that can be accomplished when we work with our hearts and hands, all for the benefit of the community. The museum’s new permanent exhibition is entitled Objets Témoins: une histoire des métiers d’art du Québec, telling the story of a multitude of trades and time-honoured traditions. The exhibit is also the testimony of thousands of artisans and craftswomen with rich and unique backgrounds. The MUMAQ also presents an audio heritage tour entitled “Le Vieux-Saint-Laurent, autrement!” (in French only).

Parc-nature de l’Île-de-la-Visitation

Although located in an urban environment, this 34-hectare park provides opportunities to observe a wide variety of birds and aquatic wildlife. Guests may visit the historic Maison du Pressoir, Des Moulins bistro-terrace and see the remains of old mills. Depending on the season, activities include walking, cycling, cross-country skiing and tobogganing.

Paroisse La Visitation-de-la-Bienheureuse-Vierge-Marie

Built of fieldstone circa 1750 and designated a historic monument in 1974, it is the oldest Catholic church in Montréal. Wood sculptures and magnificent works by Montréal artists may be found inside. Guided tours on Sundays and public holidays, from end of June to October.
Did you know...

The birthplace of hockey

It was in March 1875 that the first “organized” game in hockey history was played at the Victoria Skating Rink in Montréal. Pioneer in establishing official rules for the sport, McGill University founded the first amateur club five years later, the McGill University Hockey Club, and a national passion was born!

Not sure what the symbols mean? See the legend on p. 21.
Zoo, provincial parks, farms, vineyards, golf courses and country tours are the source of unforgettable discoveries and pleasures.

Set off to discover the picturesque villages of the Eastern Townships; explore the peaks of the Laurentians; taste the flavours of the Montérégie; hike the forests of Lanaudière; and let Laval and its attractions entertain you. Why not pamper yourself in one of the many resorts in Montréal’s vicinity? They offer the promise of thrilling activities, pleasant encounters and cozy nights.
Golf Chateau-Bromont

With its certified Canadian championship course, Golf Château-Bromont has a well-established reputation. Its greens rank among the most beautiful and demanding in the region, and its ultra-modern carts are equipped with GPS, as well as USB ports. Enjoy memorable moments of sporting relaxation and breathtaking panoramas of the Eastern Townships.

Zoo de Granby

On its trails, visitors can watch 1,500 animals comprising nearly 225 exotic species, including elephants, giraffes, gorillas and tigers, and attend some 20 presentations by zookeepers and educators. The Zoo also includes amusement rides, the Amazoo waterpark, and the South Pacific Odyssey Pavilion. Access to the waterpark is included in the Zoo’s entrance fee. In winter’s enchanting landscape, more than 90% of the animals can be seen.

LOCAPAQ

LOCAPAQ is a rental agency specializing in outdoor equipment such as tents and sleeping bags for everything from light camping to winter camping. The agency is also involved in the organization of canoe trips, skiing, winter camping trips for budding or experienced adventurers, all year long.

Eastern Townships

Outdoor enthusiasts, this is the place to be! Bike paths, cross-country and downhill ski trails, abundant lakes, microbreweries, two Wine Routes, cheese makers, restaurant owners and artisanal producers all welcome you with open arms. Whether you stay in a 5-star hotel, a campground, or something in between (think tree house, yurt, or B&B), you’re sure to sleep soundly after a busy day — and eager to start all over again in the morning!
Lanaudière

LIVE THE COTTAGE LIFE IN LANAUDIÈRE

With a mix of mountains, forests and lakes, Lanaudière is an outdoorsy type’s perfect getaway, ready for you to fully immerse yourself in its wilderness. The countless cottages for rent in the area are just the beginning – a whole network of campgrounds, outfitters and yurts awaits. Summer is always a glorious season to plunge into Lanaudière local life, though when the leaves turn in fall, a visit turns breathtakingly beautiful.

Bonjour Nature
450 834-8088 | bonjournature.ca

Bonjour Nature offers a host of one-day excursions focussing on outdoor activities and local culture in Québec’s enchanting Lanaudière region. Excursions are led by experienced, bilingual guides (French/English) and include round-trip transportation from Montréal by minibus or coach.

Laurentians

EXPLORE THE WILD, WONDERFUL LAURENTIANS

Ad p. 170

The Laurentians offer everything, from polished resorts and a happening restaurant scene to real, thick Québec wilderness you could easily get lost in. You’ll be whooshing down ski hills and spending time in après-ski chalets worth writing home about. Swing your golf club on sunny greens, or park yourself on the banks of one of the Laurentians’ large lakes for some beach time, Québec style. Fabulous resorts round out the offerings in this fun-filled area, where quaint mountain villages set the scene for discovery any time of year.

Map p. 97
405 de L’Annonciation Road | Oka | 450 479-1111
labontedelapomme.ca

A pick-your-own, family-run agritourism estate, Labonté de la Pomme invites you to harvest over 25 varieties of fruit and vegetables — apples, pears, plums, cherries, pumpkins, squash, corn, green cabbage, garlic, rhubarb — and enjoy farm activities. March to December.

Laval

SET OFF ON AN ADVENTURE TO LAVAL

Laval is renowned for its impressive number of amazing attractions that offer various activities, from entertainment to culture and nature. In Laval, all is possible: exploring space, defying gravity in a free-fall simulator, observing animals in their natural habitat and even playing scientist. You’ll find the activity that will best suit your taste of the moment, whether you’re planning an outing with friends or a family day. And it’s possible to do all this in one day, if you’re up to it!

Airplane enthusiasts can take the controls of a B737 flight simulator, the first of its kind open to the Canadian public. Accompanied by professional instructors, participants enjoy a unique activity and can choose among 24,000 airports worldwide to land at. Two virtual reality fighter aircraft simulators and a helicopter simulator with movements are also available.

Montérégie

DRINK UP AND HAVE FUN IN MONTÉRÉGIE

The Montégérie region is a foodie’s paradise, home to orchards, vineyards and maple groves. The kids will love climbing up apple trees to pick the ripe fruit, while in spring, it doesn’t get more Québec than a giant feast in an authentic sugar shack! To burn some of those calories off, the area is wonderful for bike treks, hiking and boating expeditions.

Ohana Sailing Agency

215 Map p. 87
101 de la Rive Road | Longueuil | 833 642-6272 | ohanasailing.ca

Learn the ropes of sailing from experienced instructors as you take to the challenges and learning opportunities that come with navigating the St. Lawrence River. Young and old alike, with friends or family, will enjoy a lesson onboard the 37-foot sailboat that sails rain or shine.

oasissurf.com

Canada’s first indoor surfing centre invites surfers of all levels to try out their exclusive Surfstream wave, which feels like surfing in the ocean or on a river. First-timers start with an introduction session before hitting the 2-foot wave under the close supervision of a certified instructor while expert surfers ride a world-class 4 to 6-foot wave. Once you’ve finished shredding, watch other surfers from the on-site restaurant that serves up classic fare from the world’s leading surf destinations.
The joys of cycling

With close to 850 km of bicycle paths, Montréal ranks among the best cycling cities in North America.

For a picturesque ride, explore the bicycle paths along the Lachine Canal. Almost 14.5 kilometres long, this is the oldest route in the city, and also the busiest in Canada. Linking the Old Port and the Bonaventure Expressway, this route allows you to admire locks, magnificent green spaces and old factories from the 19th century.

For even more discoveries, join a guided tour of different neighbourhoods, green laneways and some of the most beautiful spots in the city. The Go Bike Montréal Festival in the spring is also a great opportunity to do a tour of the island with family or friends.
