

Centre Pierre- Charbonneau

MAIN SPORTS PRACTICED

Boxe
Judo
Wrestling
Gymnastics
Badminton
Handball
Fencing
Volleyball
Basketball
Combat sports
Table tennis
Weightlifting

LOCATION

3000 Rue Viau,
Montréal, H1V 3J3
(Québec) Canada

5 BENEFITS:

- Green spaces
- Multi-functional gymnasium
- Olympic standards
- High ceilings
- Meeting rooms

Sector: East Montréal

Located: 7.7 km from downtown

Public transport
accessible by metro
– Viau (Green line)

Wheelchair accessible

Parking space available

Website

The Centre Pierre-Charbonneau is Montréal's second largest municipal sports and recreation centre. It has hosted many major sports events over its impressive 50-year history, including the wrestling events of the 1976 Olympic Games as well as shows, conventions and seminars.

Located in the heart of the Olympic Park in the borough of Hochelaga-Maisonneuve, this multidisciplinary complex includes a palestra, an omnisports hall with bleachers, a small amphitheatre, rooms and offices

Total seat capacity

3,400
people

1 gymnasium
❤️

Total surface area

X 36 m
X 36 m
(Ceiling from 9.6 m and 19.5 m)

Hosting experience

- 1976 Olympic Games (wrestling)
- 2019 Judo Grand Prix & Canada Cup
- 2019 World Masters Weightlifting Championships
- 2020 IBSA Judo Pan American Championships & Elite National Judo Championships
- Recurring events: Provincial, national and international championships in boxing, judo, wrestling, gymnastics, badminton, volleyball, basketball, taekwondo, karate, etc.

Facilities and equipment

Basketball / Volley-ball / Badminton / Gymnastics / Combat sports

Multi-functional gymnasium

- Full seating capacity: 3,400 people
- Permanent bleachers: 1,916 people
- 8 badminton courts/ 4 volleyball courts / 2 basketball courts
- 200-m running track with 2 lanes
- 1 training area with cardio and weight machines on the balcony
- 6,000 sq. ft. of windowed space available for welcome tables, kiosks and more
- Free Wi-Fi

Palestra/Gymnasium

- One gymnasium equipped for gymnastic activities
- National High Performance Centre for Men's Artistic Gymnastics (Perfogym)

